It's everywhere around us, engrained in our hearts and, sometimes, in our fondest memories. It's tough to sum up exactly how you feel about the one you love, but luckily, you have the best love songs to help express your feelings. The best love songs are timeless, sentimental, and make your heart flutter while thinking of your soul mate. Sure, there are great love and relationship quotes that sum up what love is capable of, but there's nothing like soul-touching lyrics and sweet melodies filling your head with delightful memories and dreams. As you're thinking of Valentine's Day ideas for this year (like picking a romantic movie to watch with your sweetheart), consider creating the ultimate love playlist that features the songs below. We chose songs from different genres based on a number of factors, including their popularity, influence, commercial and critical success, and, of course, the number of butterflies you get as you listen. Enjoy! "At Last" by Etta James Released: 1960 Album: At Last! Most romantic lyrics: "At last/My love has come along" This timeless love song is the perfect tune to play for your sweetheart. Etta James' iconic and soulful version of "At Last" makes you want to drop everything and slow dance with your love on the spot. After you dance to this song, read your special someone one of these beautiful love poems. Add to Your Playlist "Thinking Out Loud" by Ed Sheeran Released: 2014 Album: X Most romantic lyrics: "I'm thinking out loud/That maybe we found love right where we are" Ed Sheeran has penned and performed some great love songs, but one of his best is "Thinking Out Loud." It topped charts across the globe, earned Sheeran two Grammys, and became a go-to wedding song. Just listen to its lyrics (which make great couple captions for Instagram) and soulful sound and you'll understand why. Add to Your Playlist "I Will Always Love You" by Whitney Houston Released: 1992 Album: The Bodyguard: Original Soundtrack Album Most romantic lyrics: "And I'm wishing you joy and happiness/But above all this, I wish you love" Whitney Houston's version of Dolly Parton's "I Will Always Love You" is iconic for a reason. Houston's vocals are nothing short of incredible as she sings about always loving someone, even if you have to part ways. And let's be honest: Who hasn't belted out that powerful chorus? Side note: "I will always love you" is a great Valentine's Day wish to send someone, isn't it? Add to Your Playlist "Stand By Me" by Ben E. King Released: 1961 Album: Don't Play That Song!
